

Sponsorship&Exhibition

Introduction

The FAOPMA convention offers an excellent forum for exchanging idea and information on the biology, controlling pests in urban environments and management strategies. Exhibition will be held in Tokyo International Forum B7. Size of one booth is W2.5m x D2.5m x H2.5m. Each booth is equipped with following facilities: 40w fluorescent lamp, 100V/50HZ socket,two reception tables(w1,800mm x D600mm x H700mm) with white cloth, 2 fold-chairs and company name board. If extra facilities are needed, please contact directly to Nippon Travel Agency. The cost of one booth is yen250,000 (about USD 2,500).

Due to space limitation of exhibition area, maximum two(2)booths can be available for one company except gold sponsor. The Gold and Silver sponsor can choose the booths ahead of a general exhibition applicant with special precedence.

The booth's number will be given to the general exhibition applicant accordance with the organizer's decision.

Application will be confirmed upon the receipt of the payment.

To cancel, you must write a letter to the organizer notifying of your cancellation prior to July 31, 2008.

Please note that there will be a cancellation fee, (50% of the total fee) comes with reimbursement.

Cancellations received after July 31st 2008 will not be refunded.

The FAOPMA secretariat will notify you of the booth's number when they are ready.
